

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KING

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be eligible for a payment from a class action settlement relating to AT&T’s employment policies. A Washington State Superior Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from an attorney.

- Former employees Gerald Arevalo and Skylar Ruen (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”), filed a lawsuit against AT&T Mobility Services LLC; New Cingular Wireless PCS, LLC; AT&T Enterprises, LLC; AT&T Services, Inc.; and AT&T Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of themselves and a class of similarly situated employees. The lawsuit, Gerald Arevalo, et ano. v. AT&T Mobility Services LLC, et al., Case No. 25-2-20318-2 SEA (the “Lawsuit”) is currently pending in King County Superior Court. Plaintiffs claimed in the lawsuit that Defendants failed to provide compensation for missed and noncompliant meal and rest periods in violation of Washington law. Defendants dispute Plaintiffs’ claims and contend they have not violated the law.
- The Court has not made any determinations regarding the merits of the Plaintiffs’ claims and it has not decided whether Defendants violated the law.
- The parties to the lawsuit (the “Parties”) have reached a proposed Class Action Settlement. The settlement includes a total payment by Defendants of $1,750,000 (“Common Fund”). On May 6, 2026, the Court issued an order preliminarily approving the settlement and authorizing the Settlement Administrator, Atticus Administration LLC (“Settlement Administrator”), to issue this Notice.
- You are receiving this Notice because Defendants’ records indicate you are eligible to participate in the settlement as a member of the Settlement Class. “Settlement Class Members” include “Plaintiff and all persons employed by AT&T Mobility Services LLC; New Cingular Wireless PCS, LLC; AT&T Enterprises, LLC (f/k/a AT&T Corp.); AT&T Services, Inc.; and/or AT&T Inc. in Washington as non-exempt employees from July 11, 2022, through the date of preliminary approval.”
- The Court still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. No settlement benefits or payments will be provided unless the Court approves the settlement and it becomes final.
- Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected regardless of whether you act or do not act. For complete details, please see the Settlement Agreement, the terms of which control, available at www.ATTWageSettlement.com.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

DO NOTHING/UPDATE VALID MAILING ADDRESS	You will remain in the Settlement Class, receive a settlement payment, and will release certain claims against Defendants. If your mailing address has changed, please contact the Settlement Administrator to ensure they have an updated mailing address for your settlement payment.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT	If you request to be excluded, you will no longer be in the Settlement Class and will not receive a settlement payment. This is the only option that allows you to keep any right to sue Defendants about the same legal claims in this Lawsuit. The deadline to request exclusion from the settlement is August 6, 2026 .
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	Write to the Court explaining why you do not agree with the settlement. You must not exclude yourself from the settlement if you wish to object. The deadline to object is August 6, 2026 .

ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

You may ask the Court for permission for you or your attorney to speak about your objection at the Final Approval Hearing. The Final Approval Hearing will be held before Judge Jessica Manca on September 11, 2026, at 9:00 A.M. To attend remotely via Zoom, you may use the following link:

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice and why should I read it?

The Court authorized this Notice to inform you about a proposed settlement with Defendants. You have legal rights and options that you may act on before the Court decides whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may be eligible to receive a cash payment as part of the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement Agreement, and your legal rights.

Judge Jessica Manca of King County Superior Court is overseeing this class action. The case is titled Gerald Arevalo, et ano. v. AT&T Mobility Services LLC, et al., Case No. 25-2-20318-2 SEA. Gerald Arevalo and Skylar Ruen are the Plaintiffs or Class Representatives. The companies they sued, AT&T Mobility Services LLC; New Cingular Wireless PCS, LLC; AT&T Enterprises, LLC; AT&T Services, Inc.; and AT&T Inc., are the Defendants.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more plaintiffs sue on behalf of a group of people who have similar claims. Together, this group is called a “Settlement Class” and consists of “Settlement Class Members.” In a class action, the Court resolves the issues for all class members, except those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs claim that Defendants violated Washington law when they allegedly failed to compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members for missed and noncompliant meal and rest periods.

Defendants deny that they are or can be held liable for the claims made in the Lawsuit. More information about the Class Action Complaint in the Lawsuit and Defendants’ response can be found in the “Court Documents” section of the Settlement Website at www.ATTWageSettlement.com.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether the Plaintiffs or Defendants should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to this settlement. That way, they can avoid the uncertainty, risks, and expense of ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation now rather than years later—if ever. The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel, attorneys for the Settlement Class Members, agree the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Defendants.

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

Defendants’ records show you are part of the Settlement Class because you were a non-exempt employee for at least one of the Defendants in Washington between July 11, 2022, through May 6, 2026 (the “Settlement Class Period”).

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can contact the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free at 1-800-606-1679, emailing ATTWageSettlement@atticusadmin.com, or by visiting the Settlement Website at www.ATTWageSettlement.com.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

All Settlement Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the settlement are eligible to receive a pro rata share of the Class Fund based upon the number of weeks he or she worked during the Settlement Class Period as compared by the total number of weeks worked by all Settlement Class Members during the Settlement Class Period. Settlement payments will be characterized as 50 percent wages (W-2) and 50 percent non-wage damages, penalties, and interest (1099).

Your estimated payment amount is $<<PAYMENT AMOUNT>>, minus applicable payroll taxes.

7. How do I receive a payment?

All Settlement Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the settlement will be eligible to receive a payment. If the Court approves the settlement and you did not exclude yourself, you will receive a settlement payment in the mail.

To ensure you receive your payment, you must contact the Settlement Administrator if your address or phone number changes at any time. The Settlement Administrator may be contacted at:

Arevalo v. AT&T
c/o Atticus Administration
PO Box 64053
St. Paul, MN 55164

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for September 11, 2026, at 9:00 A.M. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members who did not exclude themselves from the settlement will be sent a settlement payment after all appeals and other reviews, if any, are completed. Please be patient. All settlement payments will expire and become void 180 days after the date of issuance.

9. Will Defendants retaliate against me if I participate in the settlement?

No. Defendants fully support the settlement and will not retaliate in any way against any Settlement Class Member for participating in the settlement. Defendants encourage all Settlement Class Members to participate in the settlement. Your decision to participate, not participate, or object to the settlement will not affect your employment with Defendants or Defendants' treatment of you as a current or former employee.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have an attorney in this case?

Yes, the Court appointed Timothy W. Emery, Patrick B. Reddy, and Paul Cipriani of Emery Reddy, PC as Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class. Their contact information is:

Emery Reddy, PC
600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100
Seattle, WA 98101
Phone: (206) 442-9106

Should I get my own attorney? You don't need to hire your own attorney because Class Counsel are working on your behalf. These attorneys and their firm are experienced in handling similar cases. You will not be charged for these attorneys. You can ask your own attorney to appear in Court for you, at your own cost, if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you.

11. How will Class Counsel and the Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Defendants agree not to oppose, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $583,333.33, plus costs and expenses of up to $5,000, to be paid from the Common Fund. Class Counsel will also request a service award for Plaintiffs in the amount of $35,000 each, to be paid from the Common Fund. The Court will determine the proper amount of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to award Class Counsel and the proper amount of any service award to Plaintiff. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. Whether the settlement will be finally approved does not depend on whether or how much the Court awards in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses or service award.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

12. What claims do I give up by participating in this settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Court will enter a final judgment dismissing the Lawsuit "with prejudice." This means that the claims in the Lawsuit will be permanently dismissed. Specifically, upon final approval Defendants will be "released" from claims as described in Paragraph 20 of the Settlement Agreement, which states:

"All participating Settlement Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties of any and all claims that occurred during the Class Period that (1) were alleged, or that reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts asserted, in the operative Complaint, and/or (2) ascertained in the course of the Action, for the duration of the Class Period (July 11, 2022, through the date of final approval); including claims that occurred during the Class Period for statutory, constitutional, contractual or common law claims for wages, damages, unpaid costs or expenses, penalties, liquidated damages, punitive damages, interest, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, restitution, or equitable relief for violations of federal and Washington State wage-hour laws, and all applicable local and municipal laws including for the following categories of allegations, to the fullest extent such claims are releasable by law: (a) all claims for failure to pay wages, including overtime premium pay and the minimum wage; (b) all claims for the failure to provide meal and/or rest periods in accordance with applicable law, including payments equivalent to one hour of the employee's regular rate of pay for missed meal and/or rest periods and alleged non-payment of wages for meal periods worked and not taken; (c) all claims for the alleged omission of any kind of remuneration when calculating, and/or the miscalculation of, an employee's regular rate of pay; (d) all claims for the alleged failure to indemnify and/or reimburse employees for any business expenses; (e) all claims for the alleged failure to pay vested vacation upon termination of employment; and (f) any and all claims for recordkeeping or pay stub violations, claims for timely payment of wages and associated penalties, and all other civil and statutory penalties. The participating Settlement Class Members understand and agree that this release includes a good-faith compromise of disputed wage claims."

By being part of the settlement, Settlement Class Members agree that they cannot sue or seek recovery against Defendants or other Released Parties as described in the Settlement Agreement for any released claims. Participating in the settlement does not, however, waive claims outside the release.

Any potential Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion by August 6, 2026 will be a Settlement Class Member and will be considered to have accepted the above release and to have waived any and all of the released claims against the Released Parties. Any potential Settlement Class Member who requests exclusion by the applicable deadline is not a Settlement Class Member, will not be subject to the release, and will not receive any payment.

13. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will still be in the Settlement Class, receive a payment in the mail, and be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court, the Settlement Agreement, and its included release. Unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to file a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants for the claims or legal issues resolved in this settlement.

14. What happens if I request to be excluded?

If you submit a timely, valid request for exclusion from the settlement, you will not be in the Settlement Class and will not receive a settlement payment. However, you will not release claims against Defendants, and you will not be legally bound by the Court's judgments in this Lawsuit.

15. How do I request to be excluded?

To request to be excluded from the settlement, you must send a letter, postmarked no later than August 6, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Arevalo v. AT&T
c/o Atticus Administration
PO Box 64053
St. Paul, MN 55164

To be considered valid, a request for exclusion must include: (i) your full name; (ii) your address; (iii) a statement that you wish to be excluded from the settlement (for example, "I request to be excluded from the class action settlement in Gerald Arevalo, et ano. v. AT&T Mobility Services LLC, et al., Case No. 25-2-20318-2 SEA."); and (iv) your (or your attorney's) signature and date signed.

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or email. Each individual who wants to be excluded from the settlement must submit his or her own request for exclusion. Group requests for exclusion are not permitted.

16. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendants for the claims being resolved by this settlement even if you do nothing.

17. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive a settlement payment.

18. How do I object to the settlement?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you disagree with any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval of the settlement by filing an objection. To object, you must file written notice with the Court stating that you object to the settlement in Gerald Arevalo, et ano. v. AT&T Mobility Services LLC, et al., Case No. 25-2-20318-2 SEA, no later than August 6, 2026. Your objection must be filed with the Court, which you can do by mailing your objection and any supporting documents to King County Superior Court at the following address:

King County Superior Court
516 Third Avenue, Room C-203
Seattle, WA 98104

If you are represented by an attorney, the attorney may file your objection through the Court’s e-filing system.

To be valid, your objection must be in writing and include: (i) your full name and address; (ii) the case name and number; (iii) the reason(s) why you object to the settlement; (iv) the name and address of your attorney, if you have retained one; (v) a statement confirming whether you and/or your attorney intend to personally appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (vi) a list, by case name, court, and docket number, of all other cases in which you (directly or through an attorney) have filed an objection to any proposed class action settlement within the last three years; (vii) a list, by case name, court, and docket number, of all other cases in which your attorney (on behalf of any person or entity) has filed an objection to any proposed class action settlement within the last three years; and (viii) your (or your attorney’s) signature and date signed.

In addition to filing your objection with the Court, you must also mail copies of your objection and any supporting documents to both Class Counsel and Defendants’ attorneys at the addresses listed below, postmarked no later than August 6, 2026:

Class Counsel	Defendants’ Counsel
Timothy W. Emery Patrick B. Reddy Paul Cipriani Emery Reddy, PC 600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100 Seattle, WA 98101	Jennifer D. Bucher JB Law LLC P.O. Box 17542 Seattle, WA 98127 James P. de Haan Raymond W. Bertrand PAUL HASTINGS LLP 4655 Executive Drive, Ste. 350 San Diego, CA 92121

19. What’s the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don’t like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don’t want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT’S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court hold a hearing on the fairness of the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing before Judge Jessica Manca on September 11, 2026, at 9:00 A.M. in King County Superior Court, King County Courthouse, 516 Third Avenue, Room E-863, Seattle, WA 98104.

The purpose of the hearing is for the Court to determine whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. At the hearing, the Court will hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the proposed settlement, including those related to the amount requested by Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses and the service award for Plaintiff.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by court order. Any changes will be posted at the Settlement Website, www.ATTWageSettlement.com, or through the Court's publicly available docket. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date and time have not been changed.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to the hearing to talk about it. As long as your written objection was filed or mailed on time and meets the other criteria described in the settlement, the Court will consider it. You may also hire an attorney to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but you don't have to.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing concerning any part of the proposed settlement.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

23. Where can I get additional information?
