Opt-Outs & Objections

18. What is the difference between opting-out of the Settlement Class or objecting to the Settlement?

Opting-out is telling the Court you do not want to be in the Settlement Class. If you opt-out of the Settlement Class, you cannot object or submit a Claim because you are no longer part of the Settlement Class, and the Settlement does not apply to you.

Objecting is telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class and you do not opt-out of the Settlement Class. If you object, you can submit a Claim because you are still part of the Settlement Class.

19. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will stay in the Settlement Class, and the Settlement will apply to you. You must submit a Claim to receive a cash payment. You will automatically receive your Credit Monitoring activation code. If you do nothing, you will be legally bound by the Court's orders and judgments, and all releases, including Released Claims, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

Class Counsel

20. As a member of the Settlement Class, do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. For a class action lawsuit, a judge selects lawyers called "Class Counsel" to handle the lawsuit for all class members. For this lawsuit, the Court selected lawyers Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. and Mariya Weekes of Milberg PLLC as Class Counsel.

You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost if you want a lawyer other than Class Counsel to represent you in this lawsuit.

21. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees up to 37.5% of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs and Service Awards for the Class Representatives up to $2,500 each. If awarded by the Court, these requested amounts will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

Final Approval Hearing

22. When is the Final Approval Hearing?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on December 14, 2026, 8:45 a.m. ET before Judge John Bowman via Zoom. At this hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and costs, Service Awards, and any objections. Settlement Class Member Benefits will be provided only if the Court approves the Settlement.

The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice. You should check the settlement website www.BRPrivacySettlement.com to confirm the date and time of the hearing.

23. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions from the judge. You may attend the hearing at your own expense, but you do not have to attend. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the hearing to speak about it. If your objection is filed by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

24. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

You or your lawyer may ask to appear at the hearing, but it is not required. If you file an objection by the deadline, the Court, at its discretion, may listen to your objection at the hearing.
