

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

If you were a Georgia citizen and paid an overdraft fee to SunTrust Bank resulting from an ATM or debit card transaction at any time from July 12, 2006 to April 15, 2014, and did not receive a refund of that fee, your legal rights may be affected by a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit. Please read this Notice carefully.

The State Court of Fulton County, Georgia authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer. Please do not contact the Clerk, the Court, or Truist Bank, as they cannot answer any questions you may have or give any advice about the lawsuit.

What Is This Notice About?

A settlement—between SunTrust Bank (“SunTrust”) (now Truist Bank) and a class of SunTrust deposit account holders—has been proposed in a class action lawsuit pending in the State Court of Fulton County, Georgia (“Settlement”). The case is Bickerstaff v. SunTrust Bank, Civil File No. 10EV010485. The Court has granted preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement, which is available on the Settlement Website: www.SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.

The lawsuit relates to overdraft fees that SunTrust charged to Georgia citizens in connection with overdrafts arising from certain ATM and debit card transactions. The Class claims that these overdraft fees constitute interest and, as a result, that SunTrust violated Georgia’s usury laws (which limit the amount of interest a lender can charge), committed conversion, and is liable for money had and received. SunTrust denies that the fees it charged in connection with overdrafts constitute interest and further denies that it violated any law or is liable for any of the claims asserted in the lawsuit. More information about the lawsuit is included below and in the case materials posted at www.SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.

The Class Representative and SunTrust have agreed to settle the lawsuit (the “Settlement”) to avoid the expense and uncertainty of further litigation. The Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the members of the Settlement Class and support the Settlement. The Settlement binds a class of certain SunTrust account holders who have been charged an overdraft fee on certain ATM or debit card transactions between July 12, 2006 and April 15, 2014 (the “Settlement Class” or “Settling Class Members”). You may be part of the Settlement Class. By entering into this Settlement, Truist does not admit wrongdoing or liability as to any matter whatsoever.

The Court will hold a Fairness and Final Approval Hearing to determine whether to grant final approval of the proposed Settlement. If the Settlement is approved, the Court will enter an order that, among other things, requires SunTrust to make cash payments to a settlement fund to be used to pay qualifying Settling Class Members (“Settlement Funds”), and releases Settling Class Members’ claims against SunTrust that they could have raised in the lawsuit.

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement and the Settlement becomes final, all Settling Class Members who do not request exclusion from the Settlement Class will receive a Claim Form by mail and/or email. The Claim Form is not yet available, and the deadline to submit it has not yet been set. Settling Class Members must complete and submit a valid Claim Form by the deadline to be eligible for money from the Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this lawsuit about?

A Georgia SunTrust consumer deposit account holder, on behalf of himself and a proposed class of similarly situated people, filed a lawsuit against SunTrust alleging that SunTrust's overdraft fees on certain transactions constitute interest, and therefore violate Georgia's usury laws, which limit the amount of interest a lender may charge. The lawsuit further alleges that, in assessing and collecting these overdraft fees, SunTrust committed conversion and is liable under a theory of money had and received. SunTrust denies that the overdraft fees constitute interest and denies that it is liable to any member of the class under any of the theories alleged in the lawsuit.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people, called "class representatives," sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. All these people together are called a "class" or "class members." Because a class action affects the rights of all class members, the Court must find that certain requirements are met to ensure that class treatment is appropriate and that the rights of the class members are being adequately represented. Only then will the Court "certify" a class, as the Court has already done here. After a class has been certified, the Court decides all the issues in the lawsuit for all class members. The decisions of the Court are binding on all class members.

3. What is the status of the lawsuit?

This case was filed on July 12, 2010. On October 6, 2017, the Court certified a class (as clarified by the Court on March 4, 2024 and by the Georgia Court of Appeals on February 20, 2025—defined and discussed in Section 4 below) (the "Class") and named a Class Representative. The Class Representative is Charles Daniel Bickerstaff.

The Georgia Court of Appeals held that (a) members of the certified Class who had closed their SunTrust accounts before June 1, 2010 must arbitrate their claims and (b) members of the certified Class may not assert claims based on overdraft fees charged after April 15, 2014, because of an amendment to Georgia's usury laws. SunTrust Bank v. Bickerstaff, 375 Ga. App. 37 (2025).

Otherwise, the Court has not yet reached a final decision in favor of either the Class or SunTrust. Instead, the Class Representative and SunTrust have agreed to a Settlement with the Settlement Class to avoid the expense and uncertainty of further litigation.

4. What is the definition of the Settlement Class in this case?

On March 4, 2024, the Court defined the certified Class as follows:

Every person who was a Georgia citizen on the date Plaintiff filed this Complaint [July 12, 2010], and has thereafter continuously remained through October 6, 2017, a citizen of Georgia who had or has one or more accounts with SunTrust Bank and who, from July 12, 2006 to October 6, 2017 (i) had at least one overdraft of $500.00 or less resulting from an ATM or debit card transaction (the "Transaction"); (ii) paid any Overdraft Fees as a result of the Transaction; and (iii) did not receive a refund of those fees.

The Settling Class Members are the members of the certified Class described above whose SunTrust deposit accounts were not closed before June 1, 2010, and who have claims based on overdraft fees charged between July 12, 2006 and April 15, 2014, excluding 158 individuals who previously opted out of the class (the "Settling Class Members" or "Settlement Class").

Questions? Go to www.SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com or call 1-877-239-8765

For purposes of this definition, an Overdraft Fee includes any fee or charge paid in connection with an overdraft, including but not limited to an overdraft fee, insufficient funds fee, NSF fee, and/or extended overdraft fee, but does not include fees charged when an overdraft is covered by transferring the account holder's own money from one of the account holder's accounts to another.

If you received a postcard Notice addressed to you in the mail or an email Notice, available records suggest that you may meet the above criteria.

5. Do I need to do anything if I did not get a Notice in the mail or in my email?

Yes. If you believe you are a Settlement Class Member but did not receive a postcard Notice in the mail or an email Notice, you must contact the Settlement Administrator immediately. You can contact the Settlement Administrator at 1-877-239-8765 or info@SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.

However, if you are included in the definition of the Settlement Class, you are a Settlement Class Member even if you did not get a Notice by mail or email. That means you have all the legal rights and choices described in this Notice, and you must exercise them in the time allowed. It also means that you will be bound by the Court's orders and the judgment in this case.

If you are a Class Member but did not get a Notice by mail or email, you will not receive a Claim Form by mail or email, and you will not be able to get any money from the Settlement. Please contact the Settlement Administrator to update your address so that you will receive a Claim Form.

THE BENEFITS OF THE SETTLEMENT

6. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement requires SunTrust to pay a maximum amount of $240,000,000 ("Settlement Amount"). Settling Class Members who comply with the claims process shall be paid a partial refund for Overdraft Fees paid and interest on those fees from that maximum amount after other fees and costs are deducted.

The Court may award an incentive payment to the Class Representative in an amount of up to $200,000. The Court may also award Class Counsel attorney's fees of up to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, and the Court may also reimburse Class Counsel for costs and expenses that they incurred in prosecuting the case, in an amount of up to $3,000,000.

After the attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, and incentive payment are deducted from the Settlement Amount, along with the costs of administering the notice and claims process, the remaining funds will be the "Net Settling Class Member Funds." Class Members who submit valid claims as set forth in Question 7 below will be entitled to a portion of the Net Settling Class Member Funds. The funds will be allocated among the Settling Class Members' accounts as set forth in Question 8 below, and may be claimed as set forth in Question 7.

For each Settling Class Member who timely submits a claim form, the Settlement Administrator will send a check or digital transfer via Zelle. In order to receive a payment from the Settlement Funds, Settling Class Members must properly complete and timely submit a Claim Form. Specific Claim Forms are not yet available. They will be sent to Settling Class Members via mail and/or email if the Court approves the Settlement.

7. What do I need to do to get a payment from the Settlement Funds?

If the Settlement is approved by the Court after the Fairness and Final Approval Hearing (see Sections 13–14 below) and becomes final, the Net Settling Class Member Funds (see Section 6 above) will be available for Settling Class Members to claim. The Settlement will not become final until the time to appeal the Court's approval has expired or any appeals or attacks on that approval are resolved without resulting in a material change to the Settlement terms.

To receive a payment, a Settling Class Member must complete a specific Claim Form for each eligible account and submit it by the deadline. Specific Claim Forms are not yet available, and the deadline has not yet been set. Claim Forms will be mailed and emailed to each Settlement Class Member for whom that contact information is available after the Court approves the Settlement.

A Claim Form will be able to be submitted via mail or online. A Settling Class Member needs to submit a Claim Form for each eligible account. SunTrust records already identify Settling Class Members and the amount of their Overdraft Fees.

The Claim Form will require that the Settling Class Member affirm under penalty of perjury that he or she was a citizen of Georgia on July 12, 2010 and continuously remained a Georgia Citizen through October 6, 2017, and to sign his or her name (electronically for online submissions). A "Georgia Citizen" is an individual who, throughout the above time period, (i) was a U.S. citizen and (ii) made Georgia their home.

8. How will the Net Settling Class Member Fund be allocated and distributed to the Settling Class Members?

The Net Settling Class Member Fund will be allocated to each account associated with one or more Settling Class Members so that each account is allocated its pro rata share of the Net Settling Class Member Funds. The detailed distribution plan approved by the Court can be found here SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.

To summarize the Distribution Plan, an expert will use the account data that SunTrust produced in this case, and will calculate a "Settlement Payment" for each account associated with a Settling Class Member.

The expert will calculate an "Account Total" by adding up the amount of all of the relevant unrefunded Overdraft Fees and adding 7% simple interest per year from the date the account achieved a positive balance until December 31, 2025 ("Prejudgment Interest").

Next, each account's proportional share of the settlement funds will be calculated by dividing the Account Total by the sum of all the Account Totals for all of the Settling Class Members's Accounts ("Proportional Share").

Finally, each account's "Settlement Payment" will be the account's Proportional Share multiplied by the Net Settling Class Member Funds.

If the Settlement Payment for an account is less than $5, the account will be entitled to a minimum payment of $5.

According to SunTrust's records, some accounts may be joint accounts associated with multiple Settling Class Members. For these accounts, if only one Settling Class Member returns a Claim Form for that account, then that Settling Class Member will receive the full Settlement Payment associated with that account. If multiple Settling Class Members associated with the account submit Claim Forms for the same account, the Settlement Payment will be equally divided among those Settling Class Members.

If a Settling Class Member does not timely submit a Claim Form, that Settling Class Member will not receive a check or any other payment. If no Settling Class Member submits a Claim Form for an account, the Settlement Payment for that account will not be paid and will remain with SunTrust.

All Settling Class Members will release their claims against SunTrust regardless of whether they make a Claim or receive any Settlement Payment. The specific release language appears in Section 5.1 of the Settlement Agreement, available here: www.SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN RESPONSE TO THIS NOTICE

9. If I am a Settlement Class Member, what are my rights and options in response to this Notice?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you have three options in response to this Notice: (a) stay in the case and do nothing now; (b) request to be excluded from the Settlement Class; or (c) stay in the case but object to the proposed Settlement.

A. Remaining in the Lawsuit

If you want to remain in the lawsuit and receive a cash payment from the Settlement, you do not need to do anything at this time. Again, however, if you did not receive a postcard Notice by mail or email but believe you are a Settlement Class Member, then you must contact the Settlement Administrator immediately at 1-877-239-8765 or info@SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com to provide your address or email address.

As a Settling Class Member, you will be bound by all the Court's past and future orders. You will not be able to sue SunTrust separately for any of the claims in this lawsuit. You may, but are not required to, participate in the case through your own lawyer if he or she files a Notice of Appearance as discussed in Section 11 below.

If the Court approves the Settlement and the Settlement becomes final, Claim Forms will be sent via mail and/or via email. Your personal Claim Form is not yet available, and the deadline to submit it has not yet been set. You must complete and submit the Claim Form by the deadline in order to receive any money from the Settlement.

B. Requesting Exclusion

If you do not want to participate in this case or do not want to be bound by the Court's orders, or if you want to sue on your own, then you must request exclusion in writing. The Court may exclude from the Settlement Class any Settlement Class Member who timely and properly requests exclusion by April 20, 2026. If you timely and properly request exclusion and the Court grants that request, you will retain whatever rights you may have to pursue a claim against SunTrust on your own.

To request exclusion, you must send a letter containing all of the following:

- Your name, current address, and telephone number;
- The name of the lawsuit, Bickerstaff v. SunTrust Bank, Civil File No. 10EV010485;
- The words "Request for Exclusion" at the top of the document or a clear and unqualified statement that you request exclusion from the Settlement Class; and
- Your signature.

If someone is acting on your behalf, the request must also include their name, address, email address, telephone number, position, and signature.

You must mail your exclusion request to the Settlement Administrator at the address below so that it is postmarked by April 20, 2026.

Your exclusion request must be received no later than May 4, 2026 or it will not be considered valid.

C. Objecting to the Settlement

10. What happens if I do nothing at this time?

Settlement Class Members do not have to do anything yet to receive a cash payment from the Settlement. The judgment will include all Settlement Class Members.

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you must submit a Claim Form at a later date to receive a cash payment from the Settlement. Claim Forms are not available yet. Claim Forms will be mailed and/or emailed to Settlement Class Members if the Court grants final approval of the Settlement.

If the Court grants final approval of the Settlement and you are a Settling Class Member, you will not be able to separately sue SunTrust for the same legal claims that are the subject of this lawsuit. You will also be legally bound by all orders the Court issues and any judgments the Court makes in this class action.

Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement describes the Releases, and Released Claims in necessary legal terminology, so please read this section carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.SunTrustOverdraftClassAction.com.
